Simchat Torah Kiddush Fund Collection

On Tuesday, October 2, 2018, we celebrated Simchat Torah, and as is our custom here at Shaaray Torah, we accepted pledges to the Kiddush Fund, to be used in the coming year to provide Kiddush Luncheons after our weekly Shabbat services. Traditionally, we read the last section of Deuteronomy and the first section of Genesis. For these two sections, special aliyot are given to members of our congregation. This year's honorees are Mary Donna Rubin - Kallat Torah and Jim Rubin - Hatan B'reishiet.

We thank all those who have already made pledges. If you wish, you may donate either in honor of our Kallat Torah and Hatan B'reishiet, or you may make a general donation to the Kiddush Fund. The monies pledged during this year's Simchat Torah service are only a small portion of the monies that will be needed to enable us to continue to provide delicious Kiddush luncheons following our Shabbat Services.

Congratulations to our honorees and thanks for your support of Shaaray Torah!

Dear Congregants:

On Simchat Torah, we, Mary Donna and Jim Rubin, were honored as Kallat Torah and Hatan B'reishiet. Words cannot express our deep appreciation and honor, along with our deep humbleness for being given these honors. Our hearts are smiling and filled with joy. We would also like to thank you for your contributions in honor of us being the Kallat Torah and Hatan B'reishiet. We deeply love Shaaray Torah, and pride ourselves in the fact that we are in integral part of such an amazing shul. We are motivated to do even more for Shaaray Torah!!!!

One of the first priorities ALL of us can do is to try to make a minyan at every service. The daily evening services last no more than 20 (twenty) minutes. Monday and Thursday morning services last a little longer. Friday evening Shabbat services last only one half hour. Saturday Shabbat services always conclude no later than noon. PLEASE please try to come to services when it is your week as listed in the Scribe. It is SO sad to attend a service when one has Yahrzeit, and we cannot recite the Mourners Kaddish. We who attend services on a regular basis are a family within our Shaaray Torah family. Please become a part of this amazing family!!!!

If you have ANY suggestions or ideas on ways to improve attendance at services, please contact me, Mary Donna, at (330) 265-7077, or Cantor Braun. We ALL need to make this a priority, PLEASE!!!!

Being the Kallat Torah and Hatan B'reishiet is truly a great honor, and we will do our best to live up to this honor.

Most sincerely APPRECIATIVE, HONORED, and HUMBLLED.

Kallat Torah (Mary Donna) and Hatan B'reishiet (Jim) Rubin

Teaching Gratitude

With Thanksgiving upon us this month, it is a perfect opportunity to bring to mind the Jewish value of Samayach B'chelko or being happy with one's lot. In the Pirkei Avot 4:1, Ben Zoma said, "Who is rich? Those who are happy with their portion."

What does it mean, however, to be happy with what we have, and how do we pass along this message to our children? The concept of gratitude is challenging in a world built on consumerism with a constant feed of advertisements, blogs and social media posts in support of the hottest trends.

Teaching children the difference between wants and needs is a life-long pursuit, and at Chadash, our goal is to create the next generation of menches as they spend time with us each week. We try to instill the lessons of Tikkun Olam and a general care for others as the Torah teaches us to.

Gratitude, however, is not a once a week endeavor. Rather, gratitude is something that must be taught each and every day. It must be modeled by parents and teachers and an entire community. We are blessed in Canton to have such a caring Jewish community, and our Chadash students have so many amazing role models.

Below are some tips from Parenting Magazine on how to teach gratitude to children. From all of us at Chadash, we wish you and yours a very happy and meaningful holiday. We are so grateful for all of you.

Tips For Parents On Teaching Children Gratitude

- Work gratitude into your daily conversation
- Find a goodwill project
- Encourage generosity
- Insist on thank you notes
- Practice saying no
- Be patient (Gratitude doesn't happen overnight.)

Operation Gobble Gobble

Please join Chadash
In the spirit of Gemilut Chasadim (An Act of Love and Kindness)
As we help support Jewish Family Services*

Oct. 21 – Nov. 4, 2018

Please drop off non-perishable Thanksgiving items (Cans of pumpkin, green beans, corn or cranberry sauce, boxes of stuffing, instant mashed potatoes or corn bread mix) outside of the Chadash education office.

Food will be given to the 8 families Jewish Family Services is sponsoring during the Thanksgiving holiday.

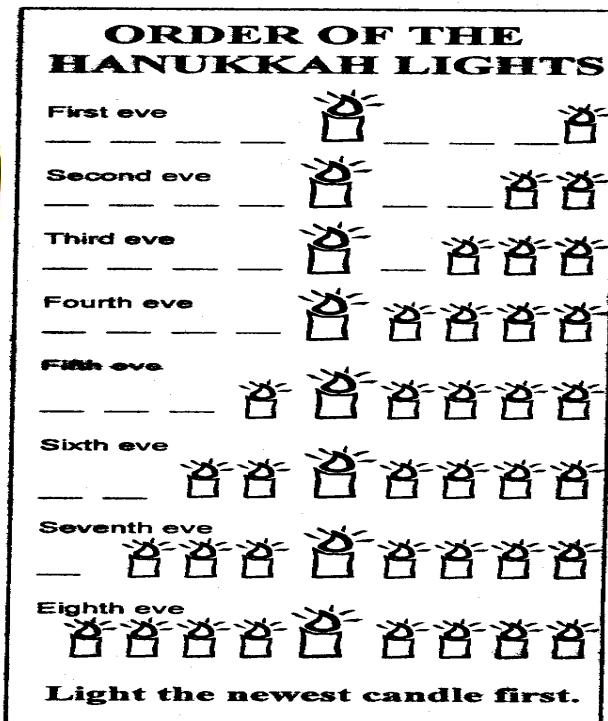

Notes for Hanukkah

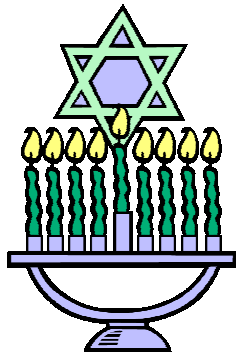

Each night of Hanukkah, the procedure is to first light the Shammash (the candle distinguished from the other candles by its placement on the Hanukkiyah - Hanukkah Menorah). The Shammash is then used to light the appropriate number of candles, e.g. one the first night, two the second and so forth until eight candles (plus the Shammash) are lit on the eighth and last night. Candles should be sufficient to burn for at least one-half hour after dark. The candles are placed in the Hanukkiyah from right to left – that is, the first candle is placed on the extreme right. The candles are then lit from left to right – that is, lighting the newest candle first.

Each night, after lighting the Shammash but before lighting the candles, two basic berakhot, blessings, are said: Barukh atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh HaOlam, Asher Kidshanu B'mitzvotav V'tzivanu l'hadlik Ner Shel Hanukkah and then Barukh Atah

Adonai Eloheinu Melekh HaOlam SheAsah Nissim La'Avoteinu ba'Yamim haHem uva'Zman HaZeh. On the first night that candles are lit we add the sheHechyanu - Barukh Atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh HaOlam SheHechyanu v'Kiyamanu v'Higiyanu laZman hazeh We place the Hanukkiyah in a place so that it is visible to passersby outside. While lighting, we recite HaNerot Halalu and then Maoz Tzur on page 242/111/308 (Sim Shalom / Sim Shalom For Shabbat / Sim Shalom for weekdays) of the Siddur.

On Shabbat (the sixth night this year) the Hanukkiyah is lit prior to Shabbat and before lighting Shabbat candles. For Saturday night, the seventh night, the prevailing custom is to light the Hanukkiyah before Havdalah in the synagogue, but in the home, immediately after.

Jewish Family Services Mitzvah Project

Jewish Family Services will sponsor the Mitzvah Project to provide Hanukkah gifts for families in our community who are in need. Jewish Family Services, and a team of volunteers will maintain confidentiality and will identify children's and family needs.

Dreidels will be hung on a menorah at Beit Ha'am on October 22nd through November 16th. Please participate by taking a dreidel and purchasing the gift, or making a cash donation to Jewish Family Services Mitzvah Project.

Please return gifts with the dreidel attached.

Gifts and/or money must be returned to Beit Ha'am no later than November 16, 2018.

If you are interested in shopping for gifts or wrapping them, please contact Chelle Cohen at 330-445-2850 or Carolyn Garfinkle at 330-493-3908.

November Shaliach Program

Learn about the Ethiopian Jewish Holiday of Sigd
Wednesday, November 7, 7:00 p.m.

Our shaliach, Mor Roffe, will teach us about the Ethiopian Jewish holiday of Sigd. Sigd is a holiday of the Ethiopian Jewish community, known as "Beta Israel". The name of the holiday is derived from the Hebrew word for prostration, "sgida".

During Sigd, which is celebrated on the 29th of the Hebrew month of Heshvan – 50 days after Yom Kippur (similar to the holiday of Shavuot, celebrated 50 days after Passover), the community marks the renewal of the covenant between the Jewish people, God and His Torah. On Sigd, Ethiopian Jews pray to God and plead to return to Zion.

Today, since most members of the Ethiopian Jewish community have made Aliyah to the State of Israel, during the holiday, members of the community travel to Jerusalem and visit the Wailing Wall and the promenade in the city's "Armon Hanatziv" neighborhood. The holiday serves as an annual gathering of the entire Ethiopian community, and its members view it as an opportunity to strengthen the connection with their roots and culture.
