In Memoriam

Shaaray Torah wishes to extend condolences to the following families:

- Alan Gottesman passed away on May 3, 2018. He was the father of David (Samantha Pringle) Gottesman.
- Joseph Bloom passed away on May 8, 2018. He was the husband of Zandy; father of Deborah Bloom and David (Michelle) Wolf-Bloom; and grandfather of four.

May the memories of Alan and Joe be a blessing to all who knew and loved them.

End of Year Chadash Reflections

By Julie Zorn, Chadash Director

The 2017/2018 Chadash school year came to a close on May 6th, and the end of the year was enhanced by the beautiful conclusion of the formal Jewish education for 11 teenagers in our program. The word "teenager" implies a young adult who still has years of learning ahead of them. Perhaps that idea is true of the 2018 Chadash confirmands, but as we sent them on their way, this very unique and special group demonstrated a maturity way beyond their years. The confirmation service followed the theme of their choosing which expressed what it feels like to be a minority. Each of the confirmands delivered their own reflections on the topic emphasizing that being a minority is part of what brought this group so closely woven together. They also expressed that being different from the masses carries with it the blessing of individuality. There was an expressed appreciation of their own unique traits and characteristics, and as we watch them set forth on their own journeys, there is a certainty that their differences will enhance their community for years to come.

Immediately following the confirmation service, Chadash families and members from the community gathered inside the social hall for a delicious hamburgers and hot dogs picnic co-sponsored by the Shaaray Torah Men's Club and the Temple Israel Brotherhood. Families said their goodbyes for the summer, and there was plenty of laughter and hugs and so much good will.

As I watched my first year of filling the shoes of Chadash director come to an end, I am overcome with gratitude for the amazing Canton Jewish community and all of the kindness and support that has been thrown my way. I want to extend special thank you's to the Chadash education committee, to the committee co-chairs, Jonathan Wilkof and Mike Magill, to Rabbi Adland and Hazzan Braun, to the super talented Chadash faculty and to all the wonderful Chadash families.

The great late poet laureate, Maya Angelou, said:

"People will forget what you said, People will forget what you did, But people will never forget how you made them feel."

Thank you, Jewish Canton, for making me feel a sense of belonging and enthusiasm. I am excited and inspired to do it all again next year. Happy summer wishes to all!

Chadash Mock wedding performed on April 29th in the Sanctuary at Beit Ha'am.
